SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

Train Late—The passenger train from Bowie was delayed several hours by a breakdown last night and did not arrive in Globe until midnight.

Want Change of Venue—This morning in the district court, N. M. Alfred, attorney for the Salt River Valley Water Users association, will ask for a change of venue for the case of Lee against the association, alleging in support of the motion that the feeling in this county is too strong against the association to admit of its receiving a fair trial. A similar motion was made several weeks ago, but denied for lack of evidence to support the motion.

Sick in Hospital—A. G. Smith, cashier of the Globe National bank, is ill with pneumonia and has been taken to the Old Dominion hospital for treatment. Mr. Smith's many friends hope to see him recover rapidly under the good care he will receive at the company hospital.

Actor Injured—One of the members of the Della Pringle company had a rather serious accident at Bowie yesterday. The company got into the junction burg Sunday and desired to reach here in time to open their engagement last evening, so secured permission to come up on a freight train. John T. Hopkins, one of the principal actors, was standing in the cupola of the caboose, when an engine that was to shove out the train which became stalled, gave the actor a hard bump and the actor was violently thrown against the window. He was badly cut and bruised about the head and face and on his arrival here Dr. McPheters dressed his wounds, which will not have any serious result.

Hunting Party Back—William Hayes, Bob Jones, Mike Dillon, F. C. Moorman and Harry Pearson returned Saturday night from a hunting trip. They spent four days at Geronimo and at old Fort Goodwin and succeeded in bagging a goodly number of quail, ducks and cottontails.

To Deport Alena—Alena Jasper, the colored woman who was acquitted of murder during the present term of the district court, will be deported to Los Angeles. She was arrested as a vagrant Sunday night and the local branch of the Salvation Army has taken charge of her case. She will be provided with clothing and sufficient money by the Salvation Army to take her to the Angel City, where she can secure a fresh start in life without the handicaps she has had locally.

Squatters Get Together—The East Globe squatters had a mass meeting in the district court room last evening to inaugurate steps to protect their interests in the coming litigation. A. K. Stabler was chosen chairman of the meeting and Lyman Woods treasurer. A committee composed of Messrs. Belcher Green and Mayhew was appointed to collect subscriptions to employ counsel to represent the squatters' interests. It was decided to employ Attorney L. L. Henry at an expense of $250, which will be raised by assessing each owner of a lot the sum of $2. The meeting was very largely attended.

There may be other portions of our country better than old Arizona and Globe, but our hired man says that he has "been some" around the different parts of this old globe, and is willing to bet his best corn dog, that Globe can show more sunny days, bigger mountains, richer mountains and valleys, more prosperity, more men of push and pluck, more handsome ladies and fast babies than any other town of its size on the globe; and that we have better mines and bigger mines, which are worked by the best miners and the most fair minded men, where there is less friction existing between man and man, than can be found in any old place yet known. And when we talk real estate we can do so with a recommendation gained by past and present facts that a one-eyed man with little reason can see. Banks may suspend, and the financial conditions run end wise and crosswise, but Globe, with her mines, her men, her climate and resources, is here with both feet and here to stay. Now is your time to buy, if you want to get in the best town of its size on the map. Buying, selling, trading or renting—don't forget the
